PROUDLY PRESENTS

FIRST CONCERT EVER AT THE HISTORIC PARK STREET CEMETERY!

SATURDAY 6, JANUARY 2018 (3.00 P.M. TO 4.30 P.M.)

The programme proposed to be played by string quartet and a pianist will consist mainly of works from the 17th and early 18th century baroque composers like Vivaldi, Bach, and Handel. This will be in keeping with the era in which the cemetery was opened and functioned. The music will be chosen in keeping with the sentiment of the venue and will include compositions of a meditative and reflective nature and not otherwise.

The performers :-

Prof. Prosanto Dutt, 1st Violin, who studied the violin under Theo Olof in the Royal Conservatory of Music in the Netherlands. He has played as soloist and was the concertmaster with both the original Calcutta Symphony Orchestra and the Delhi Symphony Orchestra. He is the senior most Western Music artist with the All India Radio Calcutta. He mostly resides in the U.S.A. with his family.

Joseph Rozario, 2nd Violin, was the concertmaster of the Calcutta Chamber Orchestra where he has recently taken over as the conductor.

He has played well-acclaimed solo concerts in various Indian cities. He is a most successful music teacher.

Surojit Mitra, Viola has studied in Calcutta and in Switzerland under the famous violinist Pierre Amoyel. He is equally proficient as a violist as well as a violinist. As the senior violin teacher of the Bangalore School of Music, he has recently returned back to Calcutta. He is in demand as an arranger of background music. Mr. Mitra is an Artist with All India Radio, Calcutta.

Malabika Dutt, has for a long time been a senior Piano teacher and the Vice-principal of the Calcutta School of Music. She has played as soloist and accompanist in Calcutta and Delhi and is a regular artiste with the All India Radio Calcutta.

Raju Mal, is a Cellist in the Calcutta Chamber Orchestra. He is the youngest in the group but has already established himself as a dependable cellist. He teaches at St. James' School Calcutta.
